Career Objective

A young mind with enthusiasm for innovation and prepared to face any challenge; ready to express my intellectual ability in any working environment in order to put the organization on the lead. I have interest in self-development through acquisition of new skills and methodology of doing things. An entrepreneurial goal getter, a multi-tasker and a value adder, who endeavours to utilize every opportunity through creativity, for usefulness and profitability. In addition is a resourceful and savvy nature coupled with good character and integrity. I would be a good team player when properly briefed and schooled towards organizational goals.
